Test Awaited As Moniter Finishes "Fracking" Well

WAYNE WEBB

Monitor Petroleum Corporation of New York "fracked" the last of five "pay zones" in its deep test well in Elliott county Sunday.

"We are blowing it off now, but haven't got a test made yet," Bink Strickland, Monitor's division engineer, said Wednesday.

"But it looks good—awful good," he added.

The final test "frack" was for the big gas "pay' hit at a depth of 4,600 feet by drillers.

During the past six weeks, Monitor has had the Halliburton well servicing company "frack" four deeper "pay zones", starting at the deepest "pay" at 7,900 feet, and coming upward.

Strickland said this week it would require about a month to properly test all production from the five "pay zones". He indicated the tests would show a fine well, but would give out no figures.

The well, one of two deep tests scheduled for Eastern Kentucky, was drilled on the Cecil Ison farm at Stevens at the mouth of Ison Creek on Little Fork. Monitor drilled the test on a farm-out agreement with Ashland Oil, which originally owned the lease, and Pennsoil and Sun Oil. During the drilling, Monitor picked up several thousand acres of leases in the area.

The second test well was scheduled to be drilled in eastern Morgan county, and it has not been abandoned However, the next well will be drilled near the Little Fork test in Elliott, and possibly several additional wells, it is presumed.

MORGAN DRILLING TO START SOON

Richard Drake has completed work of setting up a large cable-tool drilling rig on the Ruth Bros. lease in the Rubewoods section of western Morgan county, and is ready to commence drilling for Roland Amyx and associates, who hold over 2,000 acres of leases in that section.

Mr. Amyx plans a deep test, at least to 5,000 feet, he says. The lease is on the Woodsbend Dome, an area that has hardly been tested to date.

WAYNE WEBB IS WINNER OF FIRST CLUB TOURNEY AT COUNTRY CLUB

Murphy, Potter, Mitchell, Gardner In Top 5 Finalists

Wayne Webb, young West Liberty businessman, emerged as winner of the first club tournament held on the beautiful new nine-hole golf course at Pleasant Valley Country Club last weekend.

Webb, who posted a sizzling five over par 75 to capture the 18-hole event, was also the medalist winner with a four over par 35 for the nine-hole qualifying round.

Runnerup in the tourney was Bernard Murphy who shot an 83.

Third place winner was West Liberty funeral director Marling Potter with a score of 85. Fourth place went to Ray Mitchell, plant superintendent of Lycoming Shoe Co.'s West Liberty factory. Judge W. Major Gardner, with a respectable 88, placed fifth in the tourney and rounded out the five finalists who broke 90.

Ninety dollars in prize money was awarded flight winners in Saturday's opening round play. But no other cash prizes were given.

Webb, who came on strong to win the medalist title and wound up as tourney winner, will have his name and the date of his tourney victory engraved on a plaque to be placed on the wall of the clubhouse. However, he missed out on any of the prize money when he ended up in the second echelon of scorers in Saturday's opening rounds.

Mitchell, who scored an 83 in the first flight Saturday, won $20.00. Potter, who scored a 93 in the third flight, won $15.00.

Winners of the other five flights Saturday were—

Flight 2 — Parker May, with an 85 score, won $15.00.

Flight 4 — Charles Clevenger and Newt Coop tied with scores of 102 to split $10.00 prize.

Flight 5 — Bobby Caskey, score 90, $10.00.

Flight 6 — Joe D. Stacy, score 105, $10.00.

Flight 7 — Billy Ratliff, score 97, $10.00.

Golf balls also were awarded to players who registered the best drives on the third hole, which involves a pond as its major obstacle. Winners were Billy Nickell, Lynn Nickell, Ray Mitchell, and C. K. Stacy.

Finalists in the tournament teed off Sunday in four flights of four players each. They were: James Elam, Billy Nickell, Lynn Nickell, Major Gardner, Bobby Caskey, Marling Potter, Wayne Webb, C. K. BEG YOUR PARDON

Due to erroneous information, The Courier mistakenly reported last week that the Morgan County Blue Devils football team was winless last season. The Devils in fact won two games — defeating Lewis County and Nicholas County—and turned in good permormances in a number of other encounters. The Courier is happy to make this correction.

BROADWAY CHURCH OF GOD

Sept. 6 — In our Sunday School Class today we studied about peace, the kind of peace God can give, the kind of peace that can only be brought about through love and sharing. Then in our Morning Church Service, Brother Mattox chose for his text, "He Died That I Might Live."

As I listened to the wonderful message, I was thinking, the people in that day had a choice to ask Pilate to release Jesus to live among them or release Barrabas, a criminal, to live in their midst. What are you and I choosing today? Are we asking for Jesus to come and live with us or are we choosing another form of Barrabas?

Brother Mattox mentioned in his message that they nailed Jesus' hands to the cross, hands that had never been a part of a sinful act. And again I thought, "Yes, those hands were perfect and spotless hands being anchored to a cross in the cruelest way sinful man could think of. It was then a more beautiful thought came to me:

Today those clean, pure, spotless hands have been freed from their bondage of the cross and at this very moment as I write and as you read, these free hands are extended to us, ready to touch and heal if needed. Ready to caress and comfort if we ask. Ready to give us that extra strength that we may be better servants and accomplish more, ready to lift us up and claim us as one of his own, ready to walk with us beside still water and when the time comes ready to go with us through the valley of the shadow of death, ready to give us more love than we can ever know, ready to guide us as we learn to love, ready to teach us a way to real peace.

We would be happy if you could be with us next Sunday as we study The Importance of Our Values. Jesus will be there with those hands extended to anyone that will reach to touch them.

Electric Power Plants and Air Pollution

(Kentucky Happy Hunting Ground)

Electric companies in some parts of the United States have been warning their customers of possible shortages and "brown-outs" if not "black-outs." And, in some cases, the companies have been trying to blame conservationists for the situations, saying they block the construction of the generating facilities needed to supply additional demands for power. What the companies somehow overlook telling their customers, however, is the reason why conservationists sometimes block power plant construction — because they threaten to cause significant water or air pollution. They also conveniently fail to report that these problems usually can be handled at new plants with only relatively minor added investments. Surveys have estimmated, for example, that problems of thermal pollution of water by nuclear plants can be eliminated by added average investments of no more than 5% of expenses for air pollution facilities which are in the same neighborhood with respect to costs. What some of these power companies actually are protesting against is new requirements that they give adequate concern to all aspects of the environment rather than merely being privileged to make any use they desire of water, air and land resources

BUSINESS HERE AND HEREABOUTS

ASKS U.S. COAL EMBARGO—Although America has coal reserves for approximately 1,000 years, the current shortage of coal has grown so acute that Donald C. Cook, president of American Electric, parent company of Kentucky Pofer, telegraphed three high government officials last week asking hat the United States impose an embargo on coal shipments to foreign countries. "This coal shortage has been growing more and more serious day by day and has now reached the proportions of a major crisis," Cook told the government. Some of the smaller electric companies have been paying as much as $9 to $11 a ton for spot purchases of coal this year, and the bigger companies that sign long-term contracts have paid more than $6 a ton, Cook said. Soaring prices are due majorly to widespread purchases of American coking coal by Japan for its steel mills, and at higher prices than those offered by domestic consumers. Shortages also are due to lack of coal cars due to tie-ups in Atlantic ports awaiting ships.

COAL CONTRACT — TVA last week awarded a one-year contract to O'Keefe Coal Co. for 100,000 tons of coal from its Hopkins county, Ky. mines for $6 a ton at the mine.

—o—

NEW STATE DDT LAW went into effect last week. It limits use of DDT to a conrol of household pests, underground termites, bats, rats and mice. Amendments to the state's pesticide statute by the 1970 General Assembly also ban sale of more than one pound of DDT unless the buyer certifies it will be used for a legal purpose. Violators are subject to a lawsuit for treble damages by anyone who is hurt or damaged by DDT misuse.

—o—

IN WASHINGTON, Kentucky Senators John Sherman Cooper and Marlow W. Cook joined 11 other Senators in asking Senate Interior Committee investigation of the worsening coal shortage, including the purchase of coal mines by oil firms.

—o—

JOBLESS RATE RISES — The nation's jobless rate rose to 5.1% of the labor force in August, the highest since 1964, said the Labor Department in its monthly report last week.

Sluggishness of the economy caused payroll jobs to decline again, particularly in manufacturing and construction industries.

OBSERVATIONS AND PREDICTIONS

$9.7 BILLION SUBSIDIES — The federal government paid out $9.7 billion in subsidies last year. And tax breaks, which are not included in the figures, would run the total to much more. Contrary to popular belief, farmers did not get most of the subsidies. Amount going to farmers was $4.6 billion, less than half. The rest went to businesses, including the Federal Aviation Administration subsidies, ship operating subsidies, the Army Corps of Engineers, Housing and Urban Development for urban renewal and public housing grants, and some others not identified.

DRAFT CHANGE STATUS — The Morehead News predicts that enrollment this year at Morehead University will shift back to predominately female. Says The News—"The student body at Morehead last year consisted of 53 percent men and 47 percent women. The girls like it that way. With emphasis that we don't have any official or even semi-official statistics as this is written, we predict that this time it will be about 55 percent women and 45 percent men. The boys at MSU should like that. Predominant reasons for this sex-apportionment change are: 1. Uncle Sam's removal of the "Two S" draft status for college students; 2. Financial economics, primarily the tight money market; and 3. Emloyment of womeen is rising, while that of men falls percentage wise."

Morehead To Get Low-Rent Housing

MOREHEAD, Ky. — Morehead has been approved by the Department of Housing and Urban Development for an additional 52-unit low-rent housing project. But rental in the new units will be much higher than presently paid by tenants in the city's other housing project. Morehead changed its application from conventional units to turn-key units. Rental will be $62 for a two-person, one bedroom unit; $69 for a three-person four or five bedroom unit. Morehead also has applied for a 60-unit project for the elderly.

STATE FINALLY APPROVES TAX ROLL IN ELLIOTT

After several months of study, the Kentucky Department of Revenue has given its tentative approval of Elliott County's tax rolls as originally submitted.

Property Valuation Administrator Ernest Parsons said hat "quite a bit of research into land sales" has been conducted by himself and Revenue Department officials before accord was reached on his original tabulation figures.

"The state which had considered my valuation 20 percent low, later found it had taken its average from family and partial sales, which don't give a true picture," Parsons said.

He said tax books will be open for inspection the week of Sept. 21 and the Elliott County Board of Supervisors will meet the following week.

STATEMENT BY HARRY COFFEE

Property owners of Morgan County:

Having almost completed the reassessment of real estate in Morgan County, I thought it might be to your interest to let you know what the new figures are after a restudy of the Department's original estimate.

This office submitted a total of $25,940362 on real estate in its first recapitulation. This was rejected by the Department of Revenue as being too low. The figures subitted to me to bring this $25,940,362 up to fair cash value amounted to approximately ten million dollars more, or almost a 40% raise in assessment. I asked the Department of Revenue for their sales record on which this raise was based and acquired same. After I had questioned most of the sales examples, the Department of Revenue agreed to send a representative to look over the property under question. Having done this, the Department upon further study reduced their original estimate of approximately 40% to 20%. This represents a reduction of $5,000,000 from the original $10,000,000.

Cystic fibrosis and other lung diseases of children will be fought by residents of West Liberty for the first time it was announced this week by Mrs. Estelle Nickell, Chairman of the Breath of Life Campaign for the Mid-South Chapter of the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation.

The drive, which will be held Sept. 13 through Sept. 19, is being sponsored by the Morgan County Future Homemakers of America chapter.

Funds collected in the drive will be used by the Mid-South Chapter to help support nationwide research projects coordinated by the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation, and for a local patient service program.

The National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation's expanded program this year includes diagnosis and treatment for children with respiratory disorders other than cystic fibrosis.

While many respiratory conditions are not inherited as is cystic fibrosis, they can be treated with new drugs, equipment, and treatment that have brought relief to thousands of C/F patients.

MOGAN COUNTY TEEN-AGERS INVITED TO YOUTH POWER FOOD CONFERENCE

The Licking River Area Youth Power Food Conference will be held Saturday, Sept. 12, at Morehead University. Every teen-ager (13-19) and interested adults from Bath, Bracken, Fleming, Lewis, Mason, Menifee, Montgomery, Morgan, Robertson, and Rowan Counties are invited to this conference.

The Youth Power Conference will place emephasis in nutrition and good eating habits. Nutrition may sound puzzling, but reduced to simple, everyday terms, it's mealtime habits that assure clear skin, pretty teeth, strong bones and the extra "bounce" of vitality that gives energy for work and play.

The main speaker at this conference will be Tommy Porter, who was a member of the University of Kentucky basketball team and is now attending the UK School of Dentistry.

Delegates to the Aren Conference will have the opportunity to learn these facts and to share them with others through radio, news articles, and by speaking to civic clubs. For more information contact your local extension agent or ambassador.

We call it Vega.
We also call it "the little car that does everything well."
Because it does.

Everything? Everything.

Vega moves well, stops well, steers well, rides well, handles well, responds well, passes well, travels well, parks well, wears well, and is priced well under what you'd expect to pay for such a talented little car.

In our highway tests, Vega has been getting gas mileage in the neighborhood of the little imports, which isn't a bad neighborhood.

The engine is a specially designed overhead cam four with a lightweight aluminum alloy block. It turns slowly and quietly at turnpike speeds, with power to spare.

How we doing so far?

Numbers speak louder than words.

The wheelbase is 97 inches.

Total length is just under 170 inches, or nearly four feet shorter than a full-size Chevrolet.

Height of the coupe is just 50 inches, nine inches lower than the leading import.

Width: a nice stable 5½ feet.

Weight: 2,190 lbs. for the sedan.

Engine displacement: 140 cubic inches.

Fuel economy: about 25 mpg, with the standard engine and transmission, in our highway tests.

Horsepower: 90. You can order 110. (80 and 93 hp, SAE Net.)

Seating capacity: 4 adults.

Three cars and a truck.

Vega turned out so well that we couldn't turn out just one.

So we're turning out four: the sporty little hatchback coupe shown open and closed in the foreground below; the sedan, on the right; the Kammback wagon, on the left; and the little panel truck, in the rear.

Oh, and a special GT version of the coupe and wagon which we'll show you later on.

September 10th is Opening Day.

All 6,300 Chevrolet dealers are handling Vega, so you shouldn't have to go very far to see and drive one.

"NEARER, MY GOD, TO THEE" TOPIC OF DEVOTIONAL AT AID MEETING

The Ladies Aid of the Christian Church met Sept. 3 for their all-day meeting in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Mrs. Hattie Keeton, the president, presided.

The Lord's Prayer was given in unison, after which Mrs. Rowena Combs had charge of an interesting devotional. Mrs. Combs gave the history of the hymn, "Nearer, My God, To Thee," taken from "Stories of Hymns We Live By," by Cecelia Margaret Rudin.

The poem (which later became the words of the hymn) was written in 1841 by Sarah Flower Adams, Mrs. Combs said, and the tune was composed by Lowell Mason in 1856.

"Nearer, My God, To Thee" is based on the story of Jacob, as told in Genesis 22:11-17. The hymn was the favorite of the martyered President William McKinley and brought comfort and peace to him in his last hours. The hymn was sung in his memory in countless churches over the land on the day of his funeral.

In Engand, too, by the order of King Edward VII, the hymn was sung at the McKinley memorial service held in Westminster Abbey.

In the last moments of the Titanic tragedy, on Sunday, April 14, 1912, the ship's band played this hymn while the vessel was slowly sinking after having struck an iceburg on its maiden voyage across the Atlantic.

The hymn is one of the few that is acceptable to all faiths, and has been translated into nearly every language, Mrs. Combs reported.

Members present were Hattie Keeton, Fredia Franklin, Nan Caskey, Della Williams, Mary Davis, Hazel May, Golden Byrd, Vic McClain, Carrie Elam, Josie Caskey, Eliza Wells, and Rowena Combs.

Meet Ford's new Pinto. The little carefree car.

If you have the questions, Pinto has the answers.

Q. What do you mean, "carefree"?
A. Pinto's designed to free you from car cares, big and little. Cares about high prices and big gas bills. Cares about parking. Cares about service and reliability. Power and stability. Quiet and roominess.

Q. You say Pinto is little. How little?
A. Pinto is only 3 inches longer than VW. But its turning circle is actually a little less, so Pinto can slip easily into tight parking spaces.

Q. And inside?
A. Pinto gives you more interior roominess overall than Volkswagen. And getting in and out is easier because Pinto's doors are a good half-foot wider.

Q. What about price?
A. Pinto is priced like the little economy imports, too.

Q. What about power?
A. Pinto delivers 75 horsepower and averages over 25 miles per gallon in simulated city/suburban driving. The engine is front-mounted and exceptionally quiet for a car in this class. Pinto is the only American economy car equipped with a 4-speed, fully synchronized transmission at no extra cost.

Q. What else is standard equipment?
A. High Back bucket seats. Direct-Aire ventilation with upper-level fresh air outlets. Heater/defroster with 3-speed fan. Two-speed electric windshield wipers. Electric windshield washers. Your choice of 15 exterior colors. And more.

Q. How about optional extras?
A. Pinto offers a 100-hp engine and 3-speed automatic transmission. Front disc brakes. Even built-in air conditioning. Tinted glass. Vinyl roof. "Flipper" rear quarter windows. Fold-down rear seat. Bumper guards and side molding with vinyl inserts to protect the paint. More than most imports offer—at prices economy-car buyers can afford.

Q. Reliability?
A. Pinto's engine has already logged 50 million owner-driven miles. And the strength of some of Pinto's parts makes ordinary little economy cars look puny by comparison. Parts like the starter motor, ball joints, rear wheel bearings are heavy duty. Craftsmanship? Pinto is the only American car with hand-matched transmission gears.

Q. What's Pinto like out on the road?
A. Pinto has a wider stance than any economy import, for better stability in turns and gusty crosswinds. For more road feel, and more precise handling, Pinto has rack & pinion steering—like Porsche and Jaguar—something you won't find on any other American car.

Q. Tell me about service.
A. Pinto is so simple you can do much of the maintenance yourself, if you like. The Owner's Manual shows you how. And Pinto's free Do-It-Yourself Key helps you perform minor service functions.

Q. Suppose I don't service Pinto myself?
A. You still save when your Ford Dealer does it. For example, Pinto needs an oil change half as often as the leading import. And a chassis lube only one-sixth as often.

Q. Sounds great—where can I test-drive Pinto?
A. Your nearest Ford Dealer. And if you have any more questions, he can answer them.

RHONDA McKENZIE FUND TO BEGIN

Optimism is the word that the doctors of little Rhonda McKenzie have communicated to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald McKenzie. Rhonda celebrated her first birthday on July 29. She was born with severe deformities, especially on her face. At one time, it was very doubtful that she would ever have a normal body, but now her doctors are convinced that she will live a normal life.

A minimum of six operations will be required in order to correct all the deformities. She has undergone her first operation with great success. The second operation is scheduled for December 1 of this year. Rhonda is the youngest person in medical history to undergo such surgery. Thirteen-year-old Debbie Fox of Chattanooga, Tennessee, was the first.

The team of specialists at John Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Md. and the hospital recognized the impossibility of the McKenzies paying the enormous costs of such an operation and have charged only what their medical insurance would pay. The chief plastic surgeon, Dr. Milton T. Edgerton, is now located at Charlottesville, Va., and will direct and perform the second operation there.

An executive committee and an advisory board have been formed to create a Rhonda McKenzie Fund. The objective of the fund is to raise sufficient funds to pay all the travel expenses, lodging, meals, salary, etc. of Ronald and Bonnie McKenzie while they are with Rhonda for each operation. In this way, our community can work hand in hand with the doctors and hospitals in an effort to relieve this young family of a heavy financial burden. It is felt that Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie's place is with Rhonda and without any financial pressures.

The executive committee has met with the McKenzies to obtain permission to undertake such a project and to obtain the necessary information. The advisory board will be meeting soon to discuss and approve the plans and budget of the Rhonda McKenzie Fund.

Banks Circle Meets With Mrs. Pelfrey and Sets Service Project

The G. C. Banks Circle met at the home of Mrs. Melda Pelfrey on Aug. 18, 1970. Mrs. Peggy Rose, called the meeting to order and presided over the business sesion.

Olive Burton service Chairman for CWF, suggested a program of phoning shut-ins and those people living alone without relatives close by—to see if they are getting along all right or in need of anything. The president presented the ideas on "The Shepherding Committee" and asks for volunteers for the various committees.

Mildred Rose's Cube was in charge of devotion and program. Ruby Hill led the devotion, "Serenity of the Soul," assisted by Charlene Spencer, Mildred Rose and Helen Caskey.

Lynn Bliffin gave an excellent book review on "None of Those Diseases," written by S. L. McMillen, M. D. Dr. McMillan says, "God guaranteed a freedom from disease that modern man cannot duplicate" — An ages-old truth that can bring a truly healthier and happier life to men caught in the disease—producing tensions and worry of the world of today.

Refreshments of glazed peach pie and drinks were served by Mildred Rose's Cube to Orene Denny, Olive Burton, Linda Smith, Floris Cox, Gertrude Nickell, Letha Nell Nickell, Peggy Rose, Ruby Hill, Helen Caskey, Thelma McGuire, Melda Pelfrey, Mildred Rose, Charlene Spencer, Lynn Bliffin, and Mary K. Elam.

ODDS AND ENDS

By Earl Kinner, Jr.

Thoe who haven't seen and heard the Morgan High Blue Devil Band in action recently have missed a real treat. The band's performance — marching and playing—at last Friday night's football game was superb. Mrs. Linda Hopkins is band director. The band will be performing again this Friday when the Blue Devils tangle with Nicholas County on the local gridiron.

Lanny Franklin fished Sunday at Grayson Reservoir with Bob Conover. They caught several bass and crappie. Lanny also caught his own rod and reel which a bass had yanked into about 15 feet of water. The bass was still on the line—an eight-incher.

MCHS Principal Richard Jett had planned to prepare and distribute programs for last Friday's home football game so that fans could identify the gridders on the field. But due to unavoidable circumstances, he was unable to do so. He will, however, have programs ready to be handed out at this Friday's game with Nicholas County. At the suggestion of a couple of other fans—Denzil Elliott and Millard Sheets—The Courier this week has published a list of MCHS players, listing their positions and their uniform numbers.

Several local dove hunters have had good luck we hear. One group of seven bagged 107 on opening day. Included in this group were Dr. George Bellamy, Bernard Murphy, Dr. Wm. Holbrook, and Paul Reed, all of West Liberty, and Woodrow Barber and son, Dr. George Barber of Morehead, both former Morgan Countians.

An item in last week's Observations and Predictions Column called attention to 61 new subscriptions to the LVC received during August, but stated incorrectly that LVC's weekly press run is now 2,600. The press run is 3,600. Which reminds us of an old Chinese proverb: "Before tooting own horn, best to learn tune."

Before we forget, we want to thank Mrs. Martha Rose, clerk of the local Selective Service office, for submitting the article concerning the so-called "peace" symbol which appeared in last week's Courier. We've received several comments on the story.

Rev. J. K. Bolin of Lebanon, Ohio and his son, Stanley, of Washington, spent a recent weekend in Morgan County and Rev. Bolin preached at the Lacy Creek Church of Christ. Rev. Bolin who is past 90, recently sent an interesting and informative note about his son, Rev. Luke Bolin, who is pastor of the Lakewood Christian Church, 6509 Bocque Blvd., Waco, Texas. This paragraph was in Rev. Bolin's church program recently, and what a positive outlook on life it reflects!

"Time marches on. I'll be 55 next Monday! Life has been good. Every year has been a thrill. I was born during World War I, went to the seminary during the depression, served as a chaplain in World War II, have seen our three children grow up. Roberta and I have been married almost 30 years. I have been a preacher since I was in high school . . . never thought about doing anything else. Life has been good . . . and still is. If I can stay reasonably healthy, I hope to live as long as my Dad, who will be 90 on May 19. I'd like to stay around a while to see how things are going to turn out in this revolutionary yet hopeful period of history. Let time march. I don't want to see it stand still! Sincerely, your minister, Luke Bolin."

To Reduce Tax Rates

The state law on assessments stipulates that where a blanket raise is improsed the Fiscal Court in such county shall meet and reduce the local tax rates to offset any increase in total assessment for county and school taxes.

Thus, two more steps must be taken before 1970 tax bills can be prepared—

✔The County Board of Tax Supervisors must meet and examine the assessments.

✔The Fiscal Court must meet and reduce the tax rates for county and school purposes sufficient to offset the increase in total assessments.

However, the state tax rate will remain the same as last year.

threat came in the third when the Morgan lads penetrated to the Fairview 24 on a run by Terry Risner.

Fairview scored midway in the third period and again late in the fourth quarter.

The Blue Devil defensive line, however, stopped a number of other Fairview thrusts. Good defensive performances were registered by tackles Keith Frederick, and Gary Dye, guard Charles Mullins, tailback Mike Litteral, wingback Paul Wingo, and end Donnie Helton, and others.

The Blue Devils meet Nicholas County a home tomorrow night at 8 p.m. Morgan gridders and their uniform numbers and positions are listed elsewhere in this edition.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of Mrs. Effie Hill, who died Sept. 10, 1964—

I will never forget that early morning I was called to your home, and you were gone to your home on high to be with Jesus, the one you loved so much. You left us so soon but we still miss you. I know you will be waiting and watching at Heaven's gate for your loved ones to come home, where they will have no more sickness, pain or trouble, where all will be joy and peace. Although it has been six years since you left us you are still missed by all of your friends and neighbors.
